

ESTIMATED COST SHEET

As of 3.15.2013

Exposure L.A. is a dance intensive hosted by The Exposure Movement, Inc. This cost sheet covers information regarding the project for this summer:

◆ 6-days Exposure L.A. [August 12th – August 17th]

This project is designed to give advanced student dancers the opportunity to meet and be recognized by world-renown choreographers who are undergoing projects in the entertainment industry. In the past, participants were able to get the chance to learn material from upcoming music videos, observe ongoing tour auditions, be exposed to dance rehearsals for celebrity artists, and much more!

We are now accepting applications online! This year, we are offering even more great features for performing artists as they building their portfolio. Check out the numerous opportunities below! We are proud of its' continuing success, The Exposure Movement would like to extend the opportunity to other communities and cities by inviting more passionate dancers to join in on this fun, life-changing experience. If you feel that you may qualify and want to submit an application, please visit our website: theexposuremovement.com.

Estimated TOTAL*	$1699 - 2299pp
ALL INCLUSIVE!! General Breakdown of Costs	Includes 6-days of Accommodations, Nonstop Roundtrip Airfare from O'Hare, Transportation to and from L.A. locations, 20-25 classes at Edge Performing Arts Center, Debbie Reynolds Studio, Movement Lifestyle Studio, Millennium Dance Complex, Private Workshop with L.A. Choreographer, Session with DancePlug, Agency Audition, Monsters of Hip Hop Dance Show, Instructor Chaperones, and Money on a Prepaid Credit Card for Food/Other Expenses

* This breakdown is a rough estimate based on a number of participants. After the submission deadline, participants will be selected, and contacted via email. Depending on the final number of participants and exact project offered, the costs may need to be readjusted. Availability of times/dates of specific classes, private workshop, agency audition, and show cannot yet be determined or guaranteed, as this information is not yet known.

A more detailed table with breakdown specifics will be emailed to you if you are accepted into our project, 6-days Exposure L.A. Please understand that the selected participants are based off of their qualifications and the available openings. Right now, we want you to know as much about the important decision-making information as possible, without seeming overwhelming.

How much is this all going to cost?

What do I get for my money?

Being well informed about this trip is important, so if you have any further questions, please feel free to email or call us before the online application due date (May 17^h), and we will be in contact with you as soon as possible.

An option for a 3-month payment plan will be offered as well, in which the payments will cover everything, minus the Prepaid Credit Card for Food/Other Expenses. The payment due dates and amounts will also be emailed to you if you are accepted into the Exposure L.A. Summer 2013 project. Any questions regarding this plan please email: info@theexposuremovement.com

The Exposure Movement, Inc. is excited about this inspiring venture and its' ongoing success!!

Thank You,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Evelyn Rice and Lauren Garner". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the names written in a single line.

Evelyn Rice and Lauren Garner

The Exposure Movement, Inc.

Office: 312.379.9769

www.theexposuremovement.com

info@theexposuremovement.com